Rules and submissions of the VII Lluís Fina Prize

Sponsored by: FUNDACIÓN URRUTIA EJALDE & Department of Applied Economics - Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

1. The aim of the Prize is to recognize both theoretical and applied research excellence in the field of labour economics.
2. Eligible works are only those published in years 2013 and 2014.
3. The format of the candidate studies is that of articles published in academic journals. Book chapters in collective works will also be accepted provided they have a distinct research contribution in terms of new results produced by author(s). Complete books or Theses will not be accepted.
4. There are no restrictions on the number of authors of the paper. Nevertheless, individual works by young researchers will be positively valued. In case of collective works, the Prize will be awarded to all authors.
5. The scope of analysis for applied research should be the Spanish labor market (at the state, regional or local level) or the European labor market.
6. There is no limitation regarding the language used in the work or its extension.
7. The award-winning paper will be selected by a Prize Committee of three independent and leading labor economists appointed by the Governing Board of the AEET. The members of the Prize Committee are non-eligible for the award.
8. A single work will be awarded, although the Prize Committee may consider awarding second prizes or leave it void.
9. In the event of draw, priority will be given to authors that have not been awarded with the Lluís Fina Prize before.
10. The Prize, including possible second prizes, will consist of 3,000 Euros. From this amount the corresponding statutory tax will be deducted.
11. The Ceremony Award will be held during the celebration of the Jornadas de Economía Laboral.

The deadline for submission of papers will end on May 17, 2015. The works should be sent to the address aeetrabajo@gmail.com, stating in the subject "LLUIS FINA PRIZE". Submitted files should be either in "doc" or "pdf" formats (please submit one single file containing text, figures, tables and appendices).
